BECOMING AN IRONMAN: First Encounters with the Ultimate Event, Edited by Kara Douglass Thom. An inspirational, unforgettable, informative collection of personal stories about the experience of competing in one's first ironman-distance triathlon. It is pure, heartfelt human experience. Each athlete's story is compelling and dramatic in its own way. $23

THE QUOTABLE CYCLIST: Great Moments of Bicycling Wisdom, Inspiration, and Humor, Edited by Bill Strickland. Bill Strickland's selection of more than 900 great cycling quotations, and his chapter-opening essays are brilliant. An excellent gift for any cyclist - pleasurable to read for just a minute or two, or for hours at a time. $22

NORTH WIND IN YOUR SPOKES: by Hans Blickensdorfer. The famous European cycling novel - now in English translation for the first time. A suspenseful nonstop cycling novel of one young rider's rise and fall-and the subterfuges and politics of the Tour de France - with miles of heartpounding, adrenalinized race scenes. $23

THE YELLOW JERSEY: by Ralph Hurne. A washed-up rider has one last chance in the Tour de France, and though he's exhausted, his wily tactics and sheer masochistic courage transform it into an unforgettable race. $14.95

METAL COWBOY: Tales from the Road Less Pedaled, by Joe Kurmaskie. Funny, wonderfully humane stories of discovering America and the folk of this country via touring bicycle. Joe Kurmaskie embodies the best of Dave Barry and Charles Kuralt and Ernie Pyle. $23

THE RUNNER'S LITERARY COMPANION: Great Stories and Poems About Running, Edited by Garth Battista. Full of short stories and poetry on running, by authors famous and unknown - including Joyce Carol Oates, John L. Parker, Walt Whitman and dozens more. $23

WOMEN RUNNERS: Stories of Transformation, Edited by Irene Reti and Bettianne Shoney Sien. This anthology by and about women runners truly captures the essence of running, and the spirit and dreams of women. The runners in these stories, essays, and poems cover the whole range of women - young and old, single and married, fast and slow, casual runners and fierce. $23

THE ELEMENTS OF EFFORT: Reflections on the Art and Science of Running, by John Jerome. Lucid, philosophical short essays that will be a pleasure to anyone who runs. $20

FIRST MARATHONS: Personal Encounters with the 26.2-Mile Monster, Edited by Gail Kislevitz. The collected oral histories of thirty-seven runners - fat and thin, old and young, fast and slow, men and women, famous and just folks - on the subject of running their first marathon. $23, hardcover; $15, paperback

THE OTHER KINGDOM: by Victor Price. Classic Irish running novel about a young miler and his quest for greatness, breaking through mental barriers to achieve a crowning physical moment. $14.95

THE QUOTABLE RUNNER TRAINING LOG: An inspirational and practical version of the very popular book The Quotable Runner, featuring large quotes each week, and running trivia. Excellent sports art from Andy Yelenak you'll want to post on your walls, along with the quotes. $14.95

THE PENGUIN BRIGADE TRAINING LOG: by John Bingham. Runner's World columnist John "The Penguin" Bingham - hero to strivers and mid-packers everywhere - gives advice and exhortation in this useful training log. This is running as empowerment, running to change your life. $14.95

WIND, WAVES, AND SUNBURN: A Brief History of Marathon Swimming, by Conrad Wennerberg. Fascinating accounts of superhuman endurance. Of interest to swimmers, triathletes and all endurance athletes. $16.95

STAYING WITH IT: On Becoming an Athlete, by John Jerome. A funny but scientifically rigorous story of the author's quest for excellence as a masters swimmer. He starts from scratch and shoots for the national championships. What he learns, and what he teaches about human physiology is applicable to all sports and ages. $14

IT'S NEVER TOO LATE! Personal Stories of Staying Young Through Sports, Edited by Gail Kislevitz. Personal accounts of people who found their passion in athletics late in life, and how it has kept them vigorous, nimble, and fully alive. A book for anyone interested in long life and good health, whether you are now 20 years old or 90. $23

STAYING SUPPLE: The Bountiful Pleasures of Stretching, by John Jerome. An intelligent and very useful stretching book for all athletes. It emphasizes that youth is maintained by staying supple, by stretching and staying active - not the other way around. $13

SPAGHETTI EVERY FRIDAY: The story of running 50 marathons in 50 weeks. by Bob Fletcher. The book follows Fletcher's progress from his decision to take up jogging to accomplishing something only one other much younger runner had ever done at the time. $16
